FRASER HAS LEFT THE BUILDING

Fraser "Fritz" MacLeod has been the face and the voice of the Bras d'Or Yacht Club for more than 30 years. This summer, just past his 60th birthday, he decided it was time to make a change. 60! (and he can still run up the stairs with a CO2 canister in each hand). This is without a doubt the biggest change the Bras d'Or Yacht Club has seen in all of those 30+ years. Fritz has been synonymous with BYC to most of his generation. But Fraser has heard the call of the West and he has answered, as many young men are want to do. Over this past winter he took a number of courses to qualify him as a Safety Officer to work in the camps of Alberta. You'll have to get the rest of the story from him on that.

Through 30+ Regattas, 8 Commodores, 8 x 8 assorted Directors on the Board of Governors, dozens of part time staff, deaths, births, weddings, celebrations ... through floods, blood, sweat and tears, and glory days, Fraser has been on duty at the club come hell or high water.

You'll be missed Fraser. There is no doubt about that, your Cape Breton charm, your quick wit, your firecracker temper. We wish you success where ever your path may lead you, and that your path will always lead you safely home again to Cape Breton.

THE BADDECK BARNACLES DIVING SOCIETY

The Baddeck Barnacles Diving Society meets every Wednesday night @ 6 PM, at the Old Chimney Table in the BYC. A registered non-commercial society created to promote safe diving and discuss issues of interest to boaters and divers alike. The founding members are all BYC members and avid divers and include:

Dan Chiasson,
Andrew MacDonald,
Ernest Roberts,
Arthur McNeil,
Scott Williamson
Don Gallop

Currently, the Barnacles are working on a project to participate in International Ocean Cleanup Day which takes place from the BYC on September 17. Last year volunteers around the world removed 8,000,000 pounds of garbage from our oceans during International Ocean Clean Up Day. To learn more drop by the Old Chimney @ 6:00 PM on any Wednesday night.

BYC Learn to Sail 2011

The slow spring has not deterred the preparations for our Learn to Sail program. We are pleased Laura MacKillop is returning for her third year as head instructor. Paul Breski, an accomplished junior sailor from Sydney, will assist her. Paul has spent the past two years teaching at the Mira boat club we are delighted to have him join our program.

In addition to the junior sailing program we are eager to promote the great pleasure of sailing to the many kids at heart. Grovie Blair, Stuart Germani, and Tyler Germani (Baddeck Marine) have generously offered us the use of their Seabird fleet for adult sailing and introduction to racing. These classic boats are not only beautiful additions to the harbour, but a genuine pleasure to sail. The club has been awarded a grant from NSYA to promote Women's Learn To Sail. BYC will use the money to buy new sails for the Seabirds.

Bras d'or Yacht Club also supports "WOW-Women on Water". Ladies! Take advantage of the Ladies Only lessons with the option of having 3 hours of instruction on three successive Wednesday evenings or choose a weekend getaway and enjoy a Friday evening and Saturday of instruction on and off the water. Enjoy the action on the water and at the end the day come on deck to the "Tiller and Wheel" and swap tales of the day's adventures.

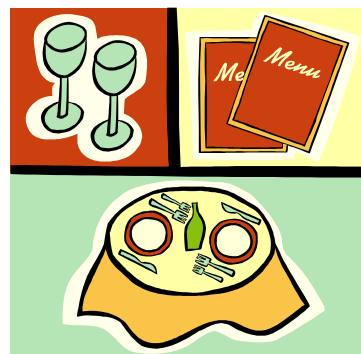

Whatever your age, gender and experience level, we welcome you to have a look at our Learn to Sail program brochure at <http://www.brasdoryachtclub.ca/learn-to-sail.cfm>.

Hope to see you on the Bras d'or Lakes with new skills to enjoy the best sailing venue on the Eastern Seaboard!!

Allison Merrick, 13, of Eastern Passage guides a pram back to shore in Baddeck as she and other participants in the Bras d'Or Yacht Club's junior sailing camp break for lunch on July 6. Baddeck was bustling with activity on Wednesday as tourists and locals gathered around the harbour to enjoy the scenery, water and hot weather.

Bras d'Or Lake Biosphere Reserve It's Official!

On June 29, 2011, The Bras d'Or Lake and its watershed was designated Canada's 16th UNESCO Man and Biosphere Reserve. The unanimous decision was made during a meeting of the Man and Biosphere International Coordinating Council in Dresden, Germany.

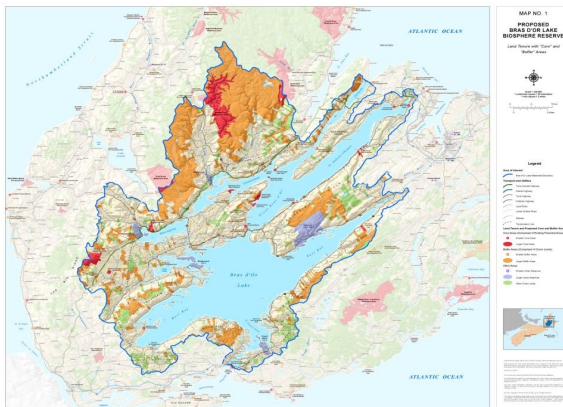

The Bras d'Or Lake Biosphere Reserve has joined an international network of 580 biosphere reserve sites in 114 countries, promoting the exchange of information, experience and personnel. Biosphere reserves are special places around the world where people are trying to protect biodiversity while fostering economic and social development.

A celebration weekend is planned for September 17 & 18, 2011. A core event will take place during the afternoon of September 17, at the Highland Village Museum in Iona. It will feature an official ceremony, cultural performances highlighting the four predominant cultures inhabiting the Lake, an art display, plays, multi-cultural food stands, and information about the biosphere reserve. This event will be open to the public and free of charge.

The Bras d'Or Lake Biosphere Reserve Association is encouraging communities, businesses, individuals and groups to host their own events to bring people together around the Lake – anytime during the official celebration weekend.

Culture, society, economy and environment are all key elements in a biosphere reserve – so any events involving these elements such as social activities, recreation, arts and crafts, music, and educational activities – would be great ways to encourage both residents and visitors to experience the beauty and uniqueness of the Bras d'Or, feel good, and take pride in their surroundings in a sustainable manner. A short video highlighting the Bras d'Or, and why it deserves this designation, will be made available to you.

If you would like to get involved in this wonderful opportunity by hosting an activity or event in your community, please contact Jessica at jessica@blbra.ca or (902) 476-2427. For more information about the Bras d'Or Lake Biosphere you may also visit our website at www.blbra.ca.

WHY SHOULD I BECOME A MEMBER OF BYC?

Because this is the BEST way you can support our beautiful and historic yacht club.

AND, once you become a member you can take part in all the events that go on there, sailing, singing, celebrating, reminiscing, day dreaming, volunteering, painting, snoozing in the sun, working on a committee, etc. Why there are just hundreds of things to do at BYC.

Now anytime some one asks you “WHY SHOULD I BECOME A MEMBER IF BYC?” you'll know what to say.

The BIG BIKE is coming to BADDECK
August 31, 2011

Tracey Pierre has stopped by the Club wondering if there is interest in putting a team together for the BIG BIKE RIDE. The bike is coming to Baddeck Aug 31 at approximately 4-6:30 pm. The bike holds 29 people. BYC could form a team, or combine with another group. Tracey's email is tpierre@heartandstroke.ns.ca Contact her if you are interested in riding the Big Bike and starting a Team here in Baddeck!!
